September 11: Run for Remembrance

On the tenth anniversary of September 11, Soldiers' Angels will host the Run for Remembrance to honor the men and women who died in the attacks on our country and to support those who fight to preserve our freedom

The inaugural September 11: Run for Remembrance in Shreveport, Louisiana will be held at Veterans Memorial Park on the Shreveport River Front. The run will commence on Sunday, September 11 at 8:05 a.m. cst, following moments of reflection to honor those who perished in the attacks on the World Trade Center. At 8:37 a.m. cst, a moment of reflection will be observed to honor those who perished at the Pentagon and on Flight 93 in Pennsylvania.

Participants in the Shreveport run are being asked to bring donated items such as beef jerky, energy/protein bars or packs, and single serving drink mixes which will be shipped to Afghanistan in support of Bossier City resident LCpl. Corey Burr and the USMC 8th Regiment.

For this inaugural event, Soldiers' Angels is planning to host 250 to 300 participants. Local military, police, and fire department personnel will be honored following the race. The race will be promoted through local businesses and churches and through a strong push with the local media. Additionally, Soldiers' Angels anticipates a local marketing campaign through the use of billboards and public service announcements.
